

October Book Report

Genre: Mystery or series

Due: Friday, October 26

Part 1: CONTRACT- due on Monday, October 8

Part 2: ROUGH DRAFT- the rough draft is due on Wednesday, October 17

Part 3: FLIP BOOK

Design a FLIP BOOK that will make other kids interested in reading your book!

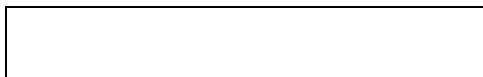

You will need:

- 8 pieces of construction paper given in class
- iPad to type your work
- markers or crayons for illustrations

After typing and printing your rough draft, you will be ready to attach each part onto a page in your FLIP BOOK.

Begin with the smallest piece of paper first for page 1. The vocabulary strips will be on page 8, which will be the largest piece of paper. Label the bottom of each page.

See the following diagram of a FLIP BOOK.

The Tiger Rising by: Kate DiCamillo
EXPOSITION
RISING ACTION
CLIMAX
FALLING ACTION
RESOLUTION
BOOK REVIEW
VOCABULARY STRIPS

Page 1: Title of book, author's name, your name and illustration

Page 2: Exposition

Page 3: Rising Action

Page 4: Climax

Page 5: Falling Action

Page 6: Resolution

Page 7: Book Review

Page 8: Vocabulary strips

Add three illustrations to your FLIP BOOK. You may put them on any pages!

You will be graded on neatness, spelling and punctuation. Good luck!

